

Perry Wood, Selling

FIGURE 4

Historic Features at Perry Wood

Car Park - the 'Drawing Room' or 'Bandstand'

Historic sandpits

Windmill - site marked on OS 1897-1900 map. Windmill thought to date from late 16th century. Local anecdote suggests associated cottages also in this area

Possibly site of semaphore signalling tower in the 18th century during Napoleonic Wars

Rose & Crown PH; dates from around 1800

The Mount: 'Pulpit'

Suggested site of fort - possibly Roman; maybe earlier as hilltop situation. If there were no trees to north-east, it has been suggested that it would be possible to see across to the Swale Estuary

Large holes subsiding woodland floor - dene-holes?

Possible site of Mesolithic roundbarrow. There is evidence of use by Mesolithic peoples at two places in Perry Wood, where a number of flint tools have been found at sites near to permanent springs

The Mount: feature marked on OS 1929-52 map - ?

-  Ancient Woodland (from 'Provisional Ancient Woodland Inventory of Kent' Forestry Commission./Natural England)
-  Road
-  Private landowner
-  Other feature of interest
